International Peace Treaty

For

American National People of the Creator

Key Treaty Provisions

Note: American National People of the Creator herein known as ANPC support and are supported by Natural Law which was used to establish this International Peace Treaty, the International Charter as well as our adopted Universal Declaration of Human Rights, Constitution, and Rules of Conduct. Natural law, which is the unalienable rights endowed by the Creator on all living men and women, establishes that certain rights or values are inherent in or universally recognized by virtue of human reason or human nature, Influenced also by the universal law of "natural right", the rights of man are held to be universal and perpetually valid, pertaining to human nature itself. It is the basis for a nation of free living men and woman protected equally by law.

These declarations are in the spirit of "secular natural law", which does not base itself on religious doctrine or authority, in contrast with traditional Natural law, and has collective rights for all living men and women. By the universal law of Natural rights, these rights are held to be universal and perpetually valid. The living men and women of ANPC have unalienable Natural rights to property, to liberty, and to life. According to Natural Law, the role of government is to recognize and secure these rights. "The natural and imprescriptible rights of man" are defined as "liberty, property, security and resistance to oppression".

1. To protect the Universal Human Rights, under Natural law, of the living men and women known as American National People of the Creator;
2. To assert the living men and women's Creator endowed rights , under Natural law, to travel freely across the land and to cross international, national, and state borders without interference;
3. Under natural law and rights, to recognize each other as self-governing Nations of all lands and to restore life, liberty and freedom to all;
4. Protecting all private properties under Natural laws and rights of ANPC members by affirming that as living men and women our Creator endowed natural laws are prior and paramount;
5. Respecting, restoring, restructuring and honoring all lands, air, agriculture and waters under our stars from environmental destruction resulting from global warming through exercising our rights of political representation before all national and international bodies.
6. Engaging in mutually beneficial trade and commerce between global nations and any economic enterprises owned "collectively" by the members of our American National People of the Creator nation to promote trade and commerce among other Nations.

PRINCIPLES

We, the living men and women of ANPC subscribe to the following principles:

1. The Creator has made us part of, and, inseparable from the Natural law and world around us. The truth binds us together and gives rise to the shared commitment to care for, conserve, and protect the land, air, water, plant, and animal life upon our beloved planet;
2. Under Universal Natural Law, we retain our inherent Creator Endowed rights to self-governance and self-determination which have existed since time immemorial, having been bestowed on us by our Creator and defined in accordance with our own Natural laws, values, customs and morals;
3. We declare that all political, social, cultural and economic relationships between all Nations have existed since time immemorial, and we declare our right to continue such relationships. This natural right is inseparable from our inherent natural rights of nationhood. American National People of the Creator as living men and women have the right of self-determination and, by virtue of that right, We, the living men and woman known as ANPC may freely determine our political status and freely pursue our social, cultural and economic development;
4. No other political jurisdiction, including nations, countries, states or counties and their governmental agencies, departments, corporations or subdivisions, possess governmental power over any living men and women of ANPC, their private properties, (posterity, conveyances etc), or the nation of ANPC;
5. Our inherent, original control and enjoyment of our lands and territories includes our collective rights over the environment consisting of the air, agriculture, lands, inland waters, oceans, seas, sea ice, flora, fauna and all other surface and sub-surface resources.
6. Our inherent natural rights include all traditional and ecological knowledge derived from our relationship with our lands, air and waters from time immemorial, the exercise of conservation practices, traditional ceremonies, medicinal and healing practices and all other expressions of art and culture;

During our Treaty deliberations the American National People of the Creator pioneer committee agreed:

- 1.) The Treaty will unify our voice, identify the impacts of climate change on our traditional private lands and seek independent representation of these concerns before international bodies.
- 2.) The Treaty will serve as a political alliance to assert the primacy of Natural and moral law regarding the definition of rights to the private properties, sacred objects and traditional knowledge base of each global nation.
- 3.) The Treaty creates a structure to facilitate and regulate international and inter-indigenous nation trade and commerce, an economic alliance for mutual support and benefit in the pursuit of global nations self-sufficiency and sustainability.
- 4.) The Treaty will unify the efforts of nations regarding border-crossing rights and in the protection of Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

OUR GOAL:

1. To establish supportive bonds among global Nations in order to secure, recover and promote, through political, cultural and economic unity, the Creator endowed rights of all living men and women and for the well-being of all future generations.

2. To establish a foundation for the exercise of American National People of the Creator's national inherent rights, without regard to existing or future international political boundaries of global nations, for the following purposes:

(a) Protecting our own Natural and inherent laws, rights and customs regarding our private properties are prior and paramount to the assertion of any other laws or jurisdictions including international bodies and agencies hereto, herein, and hereafter;

(b) Engaging in mutually beneficial trade and commerce between nations and the economic enterprises owned and operated collectively by the living men and women of ANPC and by those of other global nations;

(c) Preserving and protecting the Universal Human Rights of the living men and woman of ANPC from such violations as involuntary servitude (a form of slavery) by any/all forced assimilation contracts; (i.e. state driver's licenses, state car tags, marriage licenses, state birth certificates, social security numbers etc.), human trafficking, confiscation of private property (posterity, private conveyances etc.), or any other forms of oppression.

3. To develop an effective and meaningful process to promote communication and cooperation among all global Nations on all other common issues, concerns, pursuits and initiatives.

MUTUAL COVENANTS

We, the pioneer Committee of American National People of the Creator, reserving all our natural rights as endowed by our Creator, hereby do approve of the attached International Treaty for American National People of the Creator and are committed to providing the following mutual aid and assistance, to the best of our ability and in accordance with our own prior and paramount Natural laws, customs and traditions:

1. Exchanging economic, legal, political, traditional and technical knowledge regarding the protection of living men and women and their intellectual properties.

2. Collaborating on research on environmental issues that impact our homelands, including baseline studies and socio-economic assessments that consider the cultural, social and sustainable uses of agricultural lands and resources.

3. Participating in trade and commerce missions to lay a foundation for business relations and the development of an international, integrated global economy.

ANPC TREATY RATIFICATION

Submitted by the living men & women of the ANPC pioneer committee.

Upon ratification of this Treaty all rules and regulations heretofore promulgated by the ANPC pioneer committee, so far as they may be incompatible with any of the Provisions of the said Charter, Constitution, Universal Declaration of Human Rights and Rules of Conduct will be inapplicable to ANPC from and after the date of the ratification thereof.

All members of ANPC are to abide by the provisions of the said ANPC Treaty, Constitution, Rules of Conduct, Universal Declaration of Human Rights and Charter, upon this ratification.

We, the pioneer Committee of American National People of the Creator, reserving all our rights endowed by our Creator, hereby do affix our seals in approval of the attached Treaty for American National People of the Creator, subject to further ratification by said ANPC in the manner therein provided.

Sealed and Dated this Twenty Second day of February, in the year of our Lord, two-thousand and fifteen

Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Adopted by American National People of the Creator

PREAMBLE

Whereas recognition of the inherent dignity and of the equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world,

Whereas disregard and contempt for human rights have resulted in barbarous acts which have outraged the conscience of mankind, and the advent of a world in which human beings shall enjoy freedom of speech and belief and freedom from fear and want has been proclaimed as the highest aspiration of the common people,

Whereas it is essential, if man is not to be compelled to have recourse, as a last resort, to rebellion against tyranny and oppression, that human rights should be protected by the rule of law,

Whereas it is essential to promote the development of friendly relations between nations,

Whereas the peoples of the United Nations have in the Charter reaffirmed their faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person and in the equal rights of men and women and have determined to promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom,

Whereas Member States have pledged themselves to achieve, in co-operation with the United Nations, the promotion of universal respect for and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Whereas a common understanding of these rights and freedoms is of the greatest importance for the full realization of this pledge,

Now, Therefore THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY proclaims THIS UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS as a common standard of achievement for all peoples and all nations, to the end that every individual and every organ of society, keeping this Declaration constantly in mind, shall strive by teaching and education to promote respect for these rights and freedoms and by progressive measures, national and international, to secure their universal and effective recognition and observance, both among the peoples of Member States themselves and among the peoples of territories under their jurisdiction.

Article 1.

- All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights. They are endowed with reason and conscience and should act towards one another in a spirit of brotherhood.

Article 2.

- Everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration, without distinction of any kind, such as race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status. Furthermore, no distinction shall be made on the basis of the political, jurisdictional or international status of the country or territory to which a person belongs, whether it be independent, trust, non-self-governing or under any other limitation of sovereignty.

Article 3.

- Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person.

Article 4.

- No one shall be held in slavery or servitude; slavery and the slave trade shall be prohibited in all their forms.

Article 5.

- No one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

Article 6.

- Everyone has the right to recognition everywhere as a person before the law.

Article 7.

- All are equal before the law and are entitled without any discrimination to equal protection of the law. All are entitled to equal protection against any discrimination in violation of this Declaration and against any incitement to such discrimination.

Article 8.

- Everyone has the right to an effective remedy by the competent national tribunals for acts violating the fundamental rights granted him by the constitution or by law.

Article 9.

- No one shall be subjected to arbitrary arrest, detention or exile.

Article 10.

- Everyone is entitled in full equality to a fair and public hearing by an independent and impartial tribunal, in the determination of his rights and obligations and of any criminal charge against him.

Article 11.

- (1) Everyone charged with a penal offence has the right to be presumed innocent until proved guilty according to law in a public trial at which he has had all the guarantees necessary for his defence.
- (2) No one shall be held guilty of any penal offence on account of any act or omission which did not constitute a penal offence, under national or international law, at the time when it was committed. Nor shall a heavier penalty be imposed than the one that was applicable at the time the penal offence was committed.

Article 12.

- No one shall be subjected to arbitrary interference with his privacy, family, home or correspondence, nor to attacks upon his honour and reputation. Everyone has the right to the protection of the law against such interference or attacks.

Article 13.

- (1) Everyone has the right to freedom of movement and residence within the borders of each state.
- (2) Everyone has the right to leave any country, including his own, and to return to his country.

Article 14.

- (1) Everyone has the right to seek and to enjoy in other countries asylum from persecution.
- (2) This right may not be invoked in the case of prosecutions genuinely arising from non-political crimes or from acts contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations.

Article 15.

- (1) Everyone has the right to a nationality. (2) No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his nationality nor denied the right to change his nationality.

Article 16.

- (1) Men and women of full age, without any limitation due to race, nationality or religion, have the right to marry and to found a family. They are entitled to equal rights as to marriage, during marriage and at its dissolution.
- (2) Marriage shall be entered into only with the free and full consent of the intending spouses.

- (3) The family is the natural and fundamental group unit of society and is entitled to protection by society and the State.

Article 17.

- (1) Everyone has the right to own property alone as well as in association with others.
- (2) No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his property.

Article 18.

- Everyone has the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion; this right includes freedom to change his religion or belief, and freedom, either alone or in community with others and in public or private, to manifest his religion or belief in teaching, practice, worship and observance.

Article 19.

- Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers.

Article 20.

- (1) Everyone has the right to freedom of peaceful assembly and association.
- (2) No one may be compelled to belong to an association.

Article 21.

- (1) Everyone has the right to take part in the government of his country, directly or through freely chosen representatives.
- (2) Everyone has the right of equal access to public service in his country.
- (3) The will of the people shall be the basis of the authority of government; this will shall be expressed in periodic and genuine elections which shall be by universal and equal suffrage and shall be held by secret vote or by equivalent free voting procedures.

Article 22.

- Everyone, as a member of society, has the right to social security and is entitled to realization, through national effort and international co-operation and in accordance with the organization and resources of each State, of the economic, social and cultural rights indispensable for his dignity and the free development of his personality.

Article 23.

- (1) Everyone has the right to work, to free choice of employment, to just and favourable conditions of work and to protection against unemployment.
- (2) Everyone, without any discrimination, has the right to equal pay for equal work.
- (3) Everyone who works has the right to just and favourable remuneration ensuring for himself and his family an existence worthy of human dignity, and supplemented, if necessary, by other means of social protection.
- (4) Everyone has the right to form and to join trade unions for the protection of his interests.

Article 24.

- Everyone has the right to rest and leisure, including reasonable limitation of working hours and periodic holidays with pay.

Article 25.

- (1) Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for the health and well-being of himself and of his family, including food, clothing, housing and medical care and necessary social services, and the right to security in the event of unemployment, sickness, disability, widowhood, old age or other lack of livelihood in circumstances beyond his control.
- (2) Motherhood and childhood are entitled to special care and assistance. All children, whether born in or out of wedlock, shall enjoy the same social protection.

Article 26.

- (1) Everyone has the right to education. Education shall be free, at least in the elementary and fundamental stages. Elementary education shall be compulsory. Technical and professional education shall be made generally available and higher education shall be equally accessible to all on the basis of merit.
- (2) Education shall be directed to the full development of the human personality and to the strengthening of respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms. It shall promote understanding, tolerance and friendship among all nations, racial or religious groups, and shall further the activities of the United Nations for the maintenance of peace.
- (3) Parents have a prior right to choose the kind of education that shall be given to their children.

Article 27.

- (1) Everyone has the right freely to participate in the cultural life of the community, to enjoy the arts and to share in scientific advancement and its benefits.
- (2) Everyone has the right to the protection of the moral and material interests resulting from any scientific, literary or artistic production of which he is the author.

Article 28.

- Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized.

Article 29.

- (1) Everyone has duties to the community in which alone the free and full development of his personality is possible.
- (2) In the exercise of his rights and freedoms, everyone shall be subject only to such limitations as are determined by law solely for the purpose of securing due recognition and respect for the rights and freedoms of others and of meeting the just requirements of morality, public order and the general welfare in a democratic society.
- (3) These rights and freedoms may in no case be exercised contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations.

Article 30.

- Nothing in this Declaration may be interpreted as implying for any State, group or person any right to engage in any activity or to perform any act aimed at the destruction of any of the rights and freedoms set forth herein.

Rules of Conduct For

American National People of the Creator

Our highly spiritual forefathers and their forefathers since the beginning of time, have created and passed to our people a great respect for Mother Earth, Father Sky, and places a great emphasis on the respect for Mother Earth, Father Sky, Grandfather Sun and Grandmother Moon as well as all living and non-living objects.

1. Rise with the sun to pray. Pray alone. Pray often. The Creator will listen, if you only speak and have ears to listen.
2. Be tolerant of those who are lost on their path. Ignorance, conceit, anger, jealousy and greed stem from a lost soul. Pray that they will find guidance.
3. Search for yourself, by yourself. Do not allow others to make your path for you. It is your road, and yours alone. Others may walk it with you, but no one can walk it for you.
4. Treat the guests in your home with much consideration. Serve them the best food, give them the best bed and treat them with respect and honor.
5. Do not take what is not yours whether from a man or woman, a community, the wilderness or from a culture. It was not earned nor given. It is not yours.
6. Respect all things that are placed upon this earth – whether it be people, animals or plants.
7. Honor other people's thoughts, wishes and words. Never interrupt another or mock or rudely mimic them. Allow each individual the right to their own unique expression.
8. Never speak of others in a bad way. The negative energy that you put out into the universe will multiply when it returns to you.
9. All man and women make mistakes. And all mistakes can be forgiven.
10. Bad thoughts cause illness of the mind, body and spirit. Practice optimism.
11. Nature is not for us, it is a part of us. They are part of your worldly family.
12. Children are the seeds of our future. Plant love in their hearts and water them with wisdom and life's lessons. When they are grown, give them space to grow.
13. Avoid hurting the hearts of others. The poison of your pain will return to you.
14. Be truthful at all times. Honesty is the test of ones will within this universe.
15. Keep yourself balanced. Your Mental self, Spiritual self, Emotional self, and Physical self, all need to be strong, pure and healthy. Work out the body to strengthen the mind. Grow rich in spirit to cure emotional ails.
16. Make conscious decisions as to who you will be and how you will react. Be responsible for your own actions.

17. Respect the privacy and personal space of others. Do not touch the personal property of others, especially sacred and religious objects. This is forbidden.

18. Be true to yourself first. You cannot nurture and help others if you cannot nurture and help yourself first.

19. Respect others religious beliefs. Do not force your belief on others.

20. Share your good fortune with others. Participate in charity.
